Dear Joe,

Just recieved your email regarding your complaint against me. I hope you are aware that in order for a person filing a wacko ridiculous suit such as yours to have legal standing, that person would have to be either Black or Gay. If you are not black, there is nothing you can do about that. Buy if you are not Gay, there is something you can do about that. Start with kissing yourself in the mirror, then put on your make up and a frilly little black dress, then go to a gay bar and announce that you are looking for your Knight in shinning armour.

If that does not work, you will just have to happy being one of tens of thousands of pathetic losers seen daily driving up and down the 55 Fwy.

Thank you for making me laugh today,

Ken Hunter

Subject: LAWSUIT FILED AGAINST YOU - All Cities Realty, Inc.

All Cities Realty, Inc.

Has filed a lawsuit against:

Name: Ken Hunter
Date: July 19, 2006
Where: Los Angeles Superior Court
Case: BC355724
Attached: Summons and Complaint / PDF format

Dear Ken Hunter,

Please print and read the attached documentation. Ken Hunter, if you have been affiliated with Re/Max All Cities Realty, anytime between August 2002 and the present, you have been sued in Los Angeles Superior Court and are now a defendant in a legal action.

As a courtesy to you, Ken Hunter, we are emailing the complaint and summons to random agents and brokers in each Re/Max All Cities Realty office. Please make certain your co-agents and former agents, that may be affected, are aware of this legal action.

Please note that this is not an official service of legal process. A process server will soon be visiting your home or office to properly serve you with the summons and complaint.

Ken Hunter, if you have questions regarding this legal action please DO NOT CONTACT All Cities Realty, Inc. or the Law Offices of Jeffrey Sax.

Please direct all questions, regarding this lawsuit against you, to the management of Re/Max All Cities Realty, or your personal attorney.

Regards,

All Cities Realty, Inc.
